THE DEVIL AND TOM WALKER. - Everybody has heard, and a great many make use of the expression, "The Devil and Tom Walker," and yet we presume very few know who Tom W. was, or what relation between him and the Devil justifies this frequent association of their esting story by the best writer America has ever produced-Washington Irving: A STORY OF THE LAST CENTURY.

As Tom waxed old, however, he grew thought ful. Having secured the good things of this world, he began to feel anxious about the next. He thought with regret on the bargain he had made with his black friend, and put his wits to work to cheat him out of his conditions. He became, therefore, all of a sudden, a violent church-goer. He prayed loudly and strenuously, as if Heaven were to be carried by force of lungs. Indeed, one might always tell when he had sinned most during the week, by the clamor of his Sunday devotion. The quiet Christians who had been modestly and quietly traveling Zionward were struck with reproach at seeing themselves so suddenly outstripped in their career by this newmade convert. Tom was as rigid in religion as in money matters; he was a stern supervisor and censurer of his neighbors, and seemed to think every sin entered up to their account became a credit on his page. He even talked of the expediency of reviving the persecution of the Quakers and Anabaptists.

Still, in spite of his strenuous attention to forms. Tom had a lurking dread that the devil, after all, would have his due. That he might not be taken unawares, therefore, it is said he always carried a Bible in his pocket. He also had a great folio Bible in his counting house desk, and would frequently be found reading when people called on business; on such ocea-

Some say Tom grew a little crack-brained in his other days, and that, fancying his end approaching, he had his horse newly shod, saddled and curried with his feet uppermost, because that, at the last day, the world would be turned upside down, in which case he would find his horse ready for mounting, and he was determined at worst to give his friend a run for it. This, however, is probably a mere old wife's table. If he really did take that precaution, it was totally superfluous-at least so says the authentic old legend, which closes his story in the following manner

One hot afternoon in the dog-days, just as a terrible black thunder gust came up, Tom sat at his counting-house in his white linen cap and Indian silk morning gown. He was on the point of foreclosing a mortgage. by which he would complete the ruin of an unhappy speculator for whom he had expressed the greatest friendship. The poor land jobber begged him to grant a few months' indulgence. Tom had grown testy and irritated and refused. "My family will be ruined and brought upon the parish," said the land jobber. "Charity begins at home," replied Tom. "I must take care of myself these hard times." "You have made so much money out of me." said he, "I have not made a farthing," Just then there were three loud knocks at the street door. He stepped out to see who was there. A black man with a black horse,

"Tom, you are come for," said the black fellow, gruffly. Tom shrunk back, but too late. He had left his little Bible at the bottom of his coat pocket, and his big Bible on the desk, buried under the mortgage he was about to foreclose—never was a poor sinner taken more unaware. The black man whisked him like a child astried the horse, and away he galloped in the midst of a thunder storm.

which stamped and neighed with impatience.

Such was the end of Tom Walker and his ill-gotten wealth. The story has resolved itself into a proverb, and is the origin of the popular saying preva-lent throughout New England, "The Devil and Tom Walker.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION TRIBUNAL .-This board, as it now stands, is as follows: Charles Francis Adams, the arbitrator appointed by President Grant ; Chief Justice Cockburn, the arbitrator appointed by Queen Victoria; General Menabrea, a distinguished soldier and statesman, of liberal ideas, the arbitrator chosen by King Victor Emmanuel, and Jacques Staempfli, an ex-President of the Swiss Confederation and an able advocate, named by the government of Switzerland. The Treaty of Washington provides, further, that the Emperor of Brazil shall also name an arbitrator, and no doubt we shall shortly hear that the board of five arbitrators is complete.

The treaty (article II.) next provides that "the arbitrators shall meet at Geneva, in Switzerland, at the earliest convenient day after they shall have been named, and shall proceed impartially and carefully to examine and decide all questions that shall be laid before them on the part of the government of the U. S. and Her Britannic Majesty respectively," and that "all questions considered by the tribunal, including the final award, shall be decided by a the high contracting parties shall also name one person to attend the tribunal as its agent to represent it generally in all matters.

We have a large stock of MISSES AND CHILDREN'S COLORED BOOTS. sent it generally in all matters connected with the arbitration." Counsel before the tribunal on both sides is also authorized and while Gen. Grant has intimated that Mr. Adams shall be fortified by some of the best lawyers in the 201 country, we may be sure that England will not neglect to give the best legal assistants of the realm to Chief Justice Cockburn. Thus the arbitration board with its two agents its lawyers on both sides, and its clerks, &c., will be a somewhat imposing body : and as its sittings may be extended over a year or two the tribunal will be a windfall to the city of Geneva both in a financial and political view; and we are glad of it, because of our sympathies to whom said estate is indebted will please preand respect for the faithful little republican Swiss Confederation, and because the selection of Geneva for the sittings of this important tribunal is not only a great compliment to Switzland, but a flattering concession to the United States on the part of Her Majesty's members of the Joint High Commission and aug 10

COR. PRINCE AND WASHINGTON STS.,

ALEXANDRIA, VA. CRYSTAL DISCOVERY:

"It affords me much pleasure to bear testimony as to the efficacy of your Crystal Discovery.
Some years since, while in India, I suffered from a severe fever peculiar to the country. On my recovering, a patch of hair on the left side of my head became perfectly white, without at all affecting the remainder To remove this unsightly appearance, I had recourse to various preparations, both in Europe and in this country; but they all had one great defect—they dyed the hair black. Now, with your Crystal Discovery, I can get the desired shade—the natural color of my hair being dark brown. I consider your Discovery the best preparation I know of.

SEWING MACHINES.

HOWE'S

Lock-Stitch Sewing Machines

Are world-renowned for durability and simplicity of machinery, the perfection of the tensions, and the unparalleled wide range of work they are capable of performing without change or readjustment. At the great "Exposition Universelle" in Paris, in 1867, they were awarded the highest prize -a massive Gold Medal-over 82 competitors, and the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor was conferred on Elias Howe as the original inventor of the Sewing Machine. The growing appreciation of their characteristic excellence by the intelligent people of this country was clearly shown by the unprecedented sales of the Howe Sewing Machine during the past year, being far in excess of those of any other one patent.

More than 1000 of these excellent machines are in daily use in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, and of this very large number a single case of dissatisfaction cannot be found.

They make the "Howe," or "Lock-Stitch," which has the same beautiful appearance on either side of the fabric sewed, and they are the only machines that make this beautiful stitch to perfection. A branch office has been recently established at No. 105, King street. If you are prejudiced in favor of any particular machine, at least examine the Howe before you purchase. Remember that Mr. Howe was the original inventor of the Sewing Machine, and gave twenty years of his life to perfecting this machine. Every Howe Machine is warranted for ten years' constant use by the company, and is kept always in perfect order by the local agency. Purchasers are thoroughly instructed at their residences, by competent instructresses, in every variety of plain and ornamental sowing. An efficient lady operator will be in constant attendance at the office, and machine stitching of every description will be neatly and promptly J. KARR, General Agent, executed.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply im-

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicitation habits. Such persons must, before contemplat-

MARRIAGE. Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote commubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the me'ancholy reflection that the happiness of anoth, is blighted with our own.

SEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

Whet e misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure inds that he has imbibed the seeds of this pain all disease, it too often happens that an ill-times ense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country 'from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victins to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskifful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the consitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy surferer month after month taking their noxious o injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigorand Happiness in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.
